The Swedish Indignantly call upon the sovernment to abstain from taking part in the case's peace congress, which they stigmatize as hypocritical. The prominent officers of Finland have sought an atilisence with the case on the subject, but their request his been refused.

Manuace Fromman has arranged for Mrs. Lestic Carter and the orincipal members of his American company to appear in "Zaza," in 1908.

The Prince of Wales hespital fund, which started off with such a fourish of trumpets, is now known to Bave proved more or less of a failure. Matipees, cencerts, bails and every such expedient have been tried, commanding in the impenious hospital stamp dea, which is also admitted to be a flasco. Now an extraordinary scheme is projected—the creation of a new order, to be entitled the League of Mercy. In which those who collect and promote the collection of substrictions for the mospital fund are curolled as members, the new order will be based on the Hoyal Victorian oesier, and will consist of five classes. The highest being Knights Grand Cross. There will be a distinctive badgs, ribbon and festival. The motio of the order will be "Christo Et Regins." The Prince of Wales will be grand master.

Sait Lake City, Feb. 25, 1898.

To the Editor of The Herald:
Sir: It is the experience of many that when any correspondence is addressed to the Sait Lake Tribune that, in the opinion of its managers, is antagonistic to their interests or opposed to their policy, it receives but scant courtest. It is for this reason that we do not address our article to the editor of that paper. Hast the question been one that affected the Herald or the Deseret News, we feel evandent they would have chough Americanism to give fair play.

It is very apparent to the resulting pithic that the esitors or managers of the Sait Lente Tribune are again suffering from one of those periodical spisms that may be called "Loung Utamphobia," and from day to day its obsuinctions become more violent. For several months past scatterly an issue can be found which does not contain either a frantic appear.
